Im alone I am waiting sitting here alone
Waiting for my baby to come on home to me
To give me all I need, but Im afraid
Thinking some else will take you instead
All this things are going through my head
Because I don't know what to do
Cant remember the last time I saw you
Cant remember the last time we kissed
Cant remember the last time we exchanged a word
Just come on over I'll be home
Everyday oh I wish the memories go away
And will bring back another day of you
Oh I care for you
But I am wrong cause the memories go on and on
Keep me singing the same old song
And now oh Im so confused
Cant remember the last time I saw you
Cant remember the last time we kissed
Cant remember the last time we exchanged a word
Just come on over I'll be home
Lalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalalala
And Im afraid thinking some else will take you instead
All the things are going through my head because I don't know what to do
Cant remember the last time I saw you
Cant remember the last time we kissed
Cant remember the last time we exchanged a word
Come on over I'll be home
Everyday oh I wish the memories go away
And bring back another day for you
Oh I care for you
But I am wrong cause the memories go on and on
Keep me singing the same old song
And now oh Im so confused
Cant remember the last time I saw you
Cant remember the last time we kissed
Cant remember the last time we exchanged a word
Just come on over I'll be home
Cant remember the last time I saw you
Cant remember the last time.....
