Hey there, lovely, do you, remember me?
Lover, fighter, partner, savior
It's so hard to read your mind, but I can try, I can try
It's so hard to find the time, I won't lie

Half the time, half the time, I'm talking to a phantom Half the time, half the time, I walk right through your tantrum

You're so, haunting
Vacant, frightening really
Calm then, violent
Silent, bastardly
It's so hard to read your mind, but I can try, I can try
It's so hard to find the time, I won't lie
