

Vera Mesmer "I Don't Like Your Tone"

From the moment we met we knew that moment was meant
For somebody else
There was just that something missing
But there's always something missing
You're a do as I say not as I do indescribable curse of a person
I saw that something missing
Yeah I saw that something missing

'Cause I don't like your tone
I don't like your tone dear
I'm trying hard to be civilized here

I would say it was great to see you but honestly it'd taste a lie
There's still that something missing
There's just still that something missing from the bed
No I wouldn't love to stay and chat we've exhausted all our conversation through argument
Cause we both know somethings missing
Yeah we both know something
