Easy does it, mama
You're no busted harlot, oh but
Do you serve a purpose, do you

Tonight I am the martyr
And you will be my partner, oh but
Do you serve a purpose, do you

Because I'm not in love with you
But I'll make room for you

One look can tell you're a foreigner
And you may be a fast learner, oh but
Do you serve a purpose, do you

In your glass we're born and
In the bed we'll become one but
Do you serve a purpose, do you

Because I'm not in love with you
But I'll make room for you
Because I'm not in love with you
But I'll make love to you

Do you serve a purpose
Do you serve a purpose, oh no
Do you serve a purpose
Do you serve a purpose

Do you serve the purpose
Do you serve a purpose
Do you serve the purpose
Do you serve a purpose, no

Do you serve the purpose
Do you serve a purpose
Do you serve the purpose
Do you serve a purpose
