I will be your journey

And you will be my road

Down the stormy path

Love will never come to pass

It will be an anchor

Although the winds may blow

[Pre-Chorus:]

And through the depths of high and low

Wherever you will go, I'll follow

To the end, back again

You know

[Chorus:]

Won't let you fall

Fall out of love

'Cause together we'll be holding on

'Cause all we have is us

Won't let you go

Go away again

Because life don't mean nothing at all

If I don't have your love

[Verse:]

I will dry your tears
Take away your fears
Let me be your shelter
Your heart is safe in here
So beautiful and pure
There's nothing I would not endure
Oh, love as got me blinded
I see it all so clear
[Pre-Chorus (1x)]
[Chorus (1x)]
[Bridge:]
I'm down for you for whatever
Anything you going through
What's mine is yours
Every little thing
I got you
Even when winds will change
Come smashing down and crashing on you
[Chorus]
