Oh the mountains and the trees aren't tall enough to reach,
The height of my love for you.
No letter that I write or words I say won't quite describe it.
And I won't go, I'll never go without you.

As the music plays the people sway and I hold you tight,
Not letting go all night.
My heart it sings, it sings for you but no song could ever portray us,
It wouldn't be perfect enough.

And I won't go, I'll never go without you.
I've been waiting a very long time for you,
I've been waiting, and now I see us from a birds eye view,
Me and you.

I listen to what people say, they say they've loved,
Oh but have they?
I can't imagine anything stronger than this.
I used to hurt I used to cry,
But now I can say bye bye bye,
Fly away from this town,
Like a bird, like a bird, like a bird,
like a bird, like a bird, like the bird I am.

I've been waiting a very long time for you,
I've been waiting, and now I see us from a birds eye view,
Me and you.

Thanks to feel
