Life seems to be looking up for me,
Not a trace of what it used to be...
The days go by like a blur as I wait for you.
Everything else insignificant,
And I'm not leaving.

CHORUS

Nothing is gonna be the same anymore,
But I like it this way more than I did before,
Everything's wonderful, more than so,
Life's looking up for...

I'm as high as a camel on top of a tree,
Make it dromedary, a seat for you and a seat for me.
We can ride through the desert under the sun,
Not a soul in sight cos you are the one,
And I'm not leaving.

CHORUS

Nothing is gonna be the same anymore,
But I like it this way more than I did before,
Everything's wonderful, more than so,
Life's looking up for...

Life seems to be looking up for me,
Not a trace of what it used to be...
The days go by like a blur as I wait for you.
Everything else insignificant,
And I'm not leaving.

CHORUS

Nothing is gonna be the same anymore,
But I like it this way more than I did before,
Everything's wonderful, more than so,
Life's looking up for...

...you and me, you and me, you and me.

Thanks to feel
