innocence is lost and always with a grin thinking that im through accomplishing the sin ill show you this place you never been sits inside of me no bigger than a pin
big skies and black rainbows god he dont know
if the sun will shine or even show
and pleasure crimes for a sunday show
and the sun cant climb
and the sun wont go ever again pick and choose all your alleged friends ignorance was bliss
this bliss will never end wait until it tries no moral to defend lesson on my heart
the lesson wants to end
if the sun will shine or even show
and the sun cant climb
