Aint nothin to it-the devil made you do it too
Beautiful-long idle hands-got a weakness for pleasing Love came from a dogs smile that flashed in my direction
Pretty girls who smoke and tell and took the shape of angel
When the choir starts to sing and I get warm all over
Aint nothin to it-the devil made you do it too
Aint nothin to it-the crack in your halo blew
It's alright-it's alright
If you want-come, come undone
Wait until the sun turns red-just a murder in your head
Everyone-come, come undone
We got no real rules here-just a young american See no-hear no-speak no-don't know why it's so appealing
Halo made of flies-shit I'm leaving
God asked damn-you're too obsessed-your lips move slow as honey
Hallelujah-I'm reborn-and I get warm all over
Aint nothin to it-the devil made you do it too
Aint nothin to it-the crack in your halo blew
It's alright-it's alright
If you want-come, come undone
Wait until the sun turns red-just a murder in your head
Everyone-come, come undone
We got no real rules here-just a young american
If you want-come, come undone
Wait until the sun turns red-just a murder in your head
Everyone-come, come undone
We got no real rules here-just a young american
