Billions of birdies talkin' out loud,
Talking in code to clams in the clouds.
They send a secret message and send it by worm,
So viabrating spiders will receive the word.

But that's totaly,
Feather pluckin' insane!

Ten million rookies all pick up guitars,
but nobody taught them how!
Five thousand fishes rocking really really really hard,
nobody taught them out!
Check out chicky, driving in his little blue car,
no body taught him how.

The flies like to fly 'cos they don't like to stay.
They buzzing in the ears of the chicken all day.
The chicken understand and he pick out the code,
Send a subsonic signal thru the snot in the middle of an elephants long wet grey nose.

But that's totaly,
Feather plucin' insane.
Ten million rockies all pick up guitars,
Nobody taught them how.
Five thousand froggies rocking really really really hard,
Nobody taught them how.
Check out chicky driving in his little blue car,
No body taught him how, how how how how.

Everybody supernova (repeat 4x
