Remember when pocket change was all we had
And all those calls from the corner phone booth collect to mom and dad
And that old worn out couch was called our bed
When our cuisine was pork and beans, baloney and day old bread.

Remember that damn old car that kept on breaking down
And all the times it left me stranded thumbing all over town
And that old weekly paycheck just never stretched enough
Back in the times of nickles and dimes and love.

Together we sure made some dreams come true
Sometimes it wasn't easy but somehow we made it through
And when I get to thinking times are touch
I remember the times of nickles and dimes and love.
Oh, those good old times of nickles and dimes and love.

Remember digging through your old purse in hopes we'd get Enough change for an RC Cola or a pack of cigarettes Now we've got almost everything that we were dreaming of
Back in the times of nickles and dimes and love.

Together we sure made some dreams come true
Sometimes it wasn't easy but somehow we made it
through
And when I get to thinking times are touch
I remember the times of nickles and dimes and love.
Oh, those good old times of nickles and dimes and
love.

Together we sure made some dreams come true
Sometimes it wasn't easy but somehow we made it through
And when I get to thinking times are touch

I remember the times of nickles and dimes and love.

Do you rember those good old times of nickles and dimes and love?...
