You taught me how to love you now you expect me to forget you
After all the promises we made
So I tell my heart it's over this hurt can't last forever
Just until the heartaches fad away.

You got a slow burning memory
Maybe I'll get over you in time
Slow burning memory
Keeps on burning a hole in my mind.

The day you said goodbye I began to realize
It would take a while for my broken heart to mend
I had hoped you were dealing with the same heartaches I'm feeling
Maybe our love was just dying to live.

You got a slow burning memory
Maybe I'll get over you in time
Slow burning memory
Keeps on burning a hole in my mind.

You got a slow burning memory
Keeps on burning a hole in my mind...
