I lost myself to meet you but now I am afraid
I can't remember what or why I turned away
Maybe it will come to this, I knew it from the start
Maybe you'll fall for me but I swear I'll break your heart

Baby it'll come around when it all comes down
(Don't let it come around)
Maybe it'll break apart before it breaks my heart
(Don't let it break apart)
I know I could never do it all again
(We could try again)
Can you see, I know, I know you understand
You maybe understand

I give myself to find you but then I take it back
I know love is what I need and what I lack
Maybe it'll take some time to figure all this out
Maybe you'll wait for me but don't you waste your doubt

Baby it'll come around when it all comes down
(Don't let it come around)
Maybe it'll break apart before it breaks my heart
(Don't let it break apart)
I know I could never do it all again
(We could try again)
Can you see, I know, I know you understand
You maybe understand

I'm hoping I can wear you out, I hope you run away
I'm hoping she comes back and maybe wants to stay
You can disavow the thoughts inside my head
You could figure out and maybe understand

Baby it'll come around when it all comes down
(Don't let it come around)
Maybe it'll break apart before it breaks my heart
(Don't let it break apart)
I know I could never do it all again
(We could try again)
Can you see, I know, I know you understand
You maybe understand

You maybe understand
You maybe understand
