I think of all the things I've done
When I had someone
Remember all the little words
I tell you how I love you
But separate my heart
From getting in the way

Because you and me we don't talk anymore you see
You got to quit calling me "baby"
And it's not fair for either one of us to be
Half in love but half maybe
We've gotta cut it off before
We get turned around

I know that I'm not sure
If I found someone
But I'm taking it for the cure
Maybe I should be
A little more on my knees
I'm thinking that one's right

Because you and me we don't talk anymore you see
You got to quit calling me "baby"
And it's not fair for either one of us to be
Half in love but half maybe
We've gotta cut it off before
We get turned around again

I've been thinking this one's right
I'm not sure about the time, no no
There's no simple way to say
When you're getting in the way

Because you and me we don't talk anymore you see
You got to quit calling me "baby"
And it's not fair for either one of us to be
Half in love but half maybe
We've gotta cut it off before
We get turned around
We've gotta cut it off before
We get turned around again
