I was weak the day I met you
I was sad and insecure
Cause my love from the past promised me it would last
Then he walk out through the door

I lost my faith in people
Got defensive in my heart
I would never see someone care for me
And be afraid to apart

Suddenly you stood infront of me
And you open my heart was more
I have never felt like this before

You left my dreams
And got into my life
You show me what love would be
For in this time
My wishes come true when I'm close to you
You proved so more than just fantasy
Now you're standing here with me

When the sky fell down upon me
My heart got drowned in pain
It was hard to find some light in my and just never in the rain

I try to get it together
And gave dreams a chance to come true
I hope someone would pass my way
Didn't dare to wish for you

Suddenly you stood infront of me
I couldn't believe it then
But now I know I found love again

You left my dreams
And got into my life
You show me what love would be
For in this time

My wishes come true when I'm close to you
You proved so more than just fantasy
Now you're standing here with me

My sorrows have escaped now
But I know I'm still afraid and insecure
Just like before
Don't wanna wish no more

You left my dreams
And got into my life (my baby)
You show me what love would be
For in this time
My wishes come true when I'm close to you
You proved so more than just fantasy
Now you're standing here with me

You left my dreams
And got into my life
You show me what love would be
For in this time
My wishes come true when I'm close to you
You proved so more than just fantasy
Now you're standing here with me
Mmmm
