This is a typical night
I've got a devil and an angel above my head
I'm gonna hear out both sides
I'm gonna make an educated decision alright

Uh oh this is really happening
Uh oh I'm talking to myself again

This is a typical sight
I'm stumbling out the bar with a female friend
That doesn't mean I didn't try

To keep myself from messing with you like this alright

Uh oh this is really happening
Uh oh I'm talking to myself again
Uh oh this is really happening
Uh oh I'm talking to myself again

This is a typical lie
I tell myself to make it all seem okay
It's gonna eat me alive
Cause I know we can't be happy to live this way alright
