I'm wondering what I did right, to have you walking here beside me on this kind of night, do you know how hard it is to glance and then not smile, you make it impossible after a short while.

There's a million stars a'shining, up around that big full moon, but still somehow there's nothing here, as beautiful as you.

How does it feel to be so beautiful,
how does it feel to be so beautiful,
I hope you know you are what makes my smile so real, how does it feel, how does it feel

I thought that I was just another dreamer, thinking unrealistic like, like people sometimes do.
Now I'm just a bit confused, I had my dreams but I never thought that you'd come true.

how does it feel to be so beautiful,
how does it feel to be so beautiful,
I hope you know you are what makes my smile so real,

and I'd use words to describe, if I was smart enough, what comes to me from your eyes, if only I was bright enough, so for now I'm asking questions like I've lost my mind and I think you should know it's all your fault it's all your fault, how does it feel

true.
