Cross these words right off the sheet

So you've become
A father of both
When did prosthesis take over?
I only wish we could recover
Recover what we've lost
This transitive thought reminds me of falling backwards

I only wish there was a way
A way to reverse the promise that we made
Indifference afflicts every page of earth
You'd write had you anyway
I only wish there was a way
A way to reverse the promise that we made
Evolution has changed

Tirelessly fighting for this
Becomes a coping method
And pendulum,
This falling motion has brought you close to her
To her
Perpetual

Indecision
Is destructive
But the synthesis will create again
(Will create again)

Tirelessly fighting for this
Has become a coping method
Pendulum

With willingness
With willingness to live
Take a bow
The pressure in your loves in paradigm

I only wish there was a way
A way to reverse the promise that we made
Indifference afflicts every page of earth

You'd write had you anyway
I only wish there was a way
A way to reverse the promise that we made
Evolution has changed

Let's begin
