Crawling around me, sleepless eyes.
Your hands, they haunt me,
Finger tipping down my spine.

Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest.
Tell the sun don't fall so we'll never forget.
Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest, past praying for.

Always kept quiet, clenching my teeth.
Finally fighting the floor.
Raise me from my bones once more.
You're way past praying for.

Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest.
Tell the sun don't fall so we'll never forget.

Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake I'll be just like the rest, past praying for.

I wouldn't want to wake you from yourself.
Doesn't sit in your stomach just quite right,
Toying with time, lascivious stares in a dangerous ride.

Crawling around me, sleepless eyes.

Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake, I'll be just like the rest.
Tell the sun don't fall so we'll never forget.
Heaven forbid, well aware of your sin.
In the wake, I'll be just like the rest, past praying for.
