When the evenin' sun goes down
You will find me hangin' 'round...

Intro, spoken:

Well, Hi, neighbors
It is sundown at our house as we make this new Columbia album for you We want to thank you for bein' so nice on our last album
It was wonderful the way you accepted it And, tonight, we've chosen some of the songs that we sing and play on our dances across the country songs that reflect the emotions of the people that live in the night life Songs of happiness, sadness, heartbreak songs of the night life And we hope that you enjoy yourself tonight as you listen to our latest one This first song was written especially for me by a boy from down in Texas way and it's accepted so good on our dances We hope you like it It's a little different from what we normally do but we hope it will be pleasing to you So, me and the Cherokee Cowboys are knockin' on your record player once more And we hope that you can just kind of sit back kick off your shoes and relax just a little bit and listen to our latest album And if you like it, tell us about it, won't you and we'll try to do more things for you the way we're doin' this one...

When the evenin' sun goes down
You will find me hangin' 'round
Oh, the night life ain't no good life
But it's my life

Many people just like me

Dreaming of old used-to-be
Oh, the night life ain't no good life
But it's my life

CHORUS:

Well, listen to the blues they're playin'
Yeah, listen to what the blues are sayin'

Mine is just another scene
From the world of broken dreams
Oh, the night life ain't no good life
But it's my life

Yeah,
(Repeat first two verses)

REPEAT CHORUS

Well,
(Repeat last verse)
