I thought, I knew what I was doing
On that crazy summer night that I left you
I didn't know what I was losing
Didn't realize that no other man
Could love me like you do
But like a fool I let you go
I let you slip away
And now the pain that lives inside of me
Gets worse each day
Give me a second chance for love
Give me a second chance for love
I knew I hurt you when I left you
I can see the tear drops rolling down your face
Now that your gone I can't forget you
Now I realize that no other man
Could ever take your place
But like a fool I let you go
I let you slip away
And now the pain that lives inside of me
Gets worse each day
Give me a second chance for love
Give me a second chance for love
I was a fool to let you go
To let you slip away
And now the pain that lives inside of me
Gets worse each day
Give me a second chance for love
Give me a second chance for love
Give me a second chance for love
Give me a second chance for love
