(Parody of Basket Case by Green Day)

Do we have much time
To live until we find
A lot of things are happening all at once?
Crime and violence grow
While earthquakes take their toll
Morality is low and what about AIDS?

CHORUS 1:

Sometimes I think this world's asleep
So we just might be history
It all keeps adding up
I think I'm waking up
I'm not just paranoid, I'm not alone

I went to a bank
To use the cash machine
What happens when those cash machines are shut down?
I went to Al Gore
He said Earth's life support
Has nearly been destroyed, no cure can be found

CHORUS 2:

Sometimes I think this world's asleep
Keep your eyes on the Middle East
The signs keep adding up
I think I'm waking up
I'm not just paranoid, I'm not alone

Christ will soon return
So you better know God

(Break)

(CHORUS 1)
