We've gone a long way while learning
Still our hearts kept on burning
We've gone right, we've gone straight
And ended up far - out

We've reaped the fruits of deception
Opened the doors of perception
And burned down all the bridges
We came across

Chorus:
When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?

When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?

We've gone a long way while learning
Still our hearts kept on burning
We've gone right, we've gone straight
And ended up far - out

We've reaped the fruits of deception
Opened the doors of perception
And burned down all the bridges
We came across

Chorus:
When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?

When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?

(Solo)

Chorus:

When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?

When will you be whole again ?
We've both been down that road
Going nowhere
Still you ask is love to blame ?
