We rise up to the sky
Creating, and killing time
We reach for the best, leaving for the shelter
We cannot stop building, we'll be scraping the sky Someday, somehow, we'll be so blind that we'll be scraping the sky

Emotional dissorted, we are looking for a stood We're blaming ourself cause we know we should Expect things to happen if you hurry to the sky
So kill your anger and immortalize

Lick my lips, I'm on fire
Lick my lips, I desire

Your mind is stimulated, figure despair is running through your veins
Stand up and pull the trigger, save yourself and smash
the race

We race up to the sky
Creating, and killing time
We books for the best, reading for a shelter
Maybe if we hurry, we'll be scraping the sky
Someday, somehow, we'll be so blind that we'll be
scraping the skies

Emotional dissorted we are looking for a stood
We're blaming ourself cause we know we should Expect things to happen if you hurry to the sky
So kill your anger and immortalize
Someday, somehow, we'll be so blind that we'll be
scraping the skies

Someday, somehow, we'll be so blind that we'll be
scraping the skies
Scraping the skies
