"Trinity"

If I sound confused at times, I will still believe in You
My mind it struggles to perceive Your mysterious unity
I'm a human Â– I guess my mind's too small
This kind of union's above it all
Little thoughts of men just can't comprehend Mysterious God in trinity on high
Our Lord is one revealed in three persons
The Father, the Holy Ghost and Jesus Christ -- my my my
Explanation's much too hard for me from information
I've received

And so today my words are small -- they can't define my God at all
Praise to You, Thy will be done for You to me are the Holy One -- all right
Then
After this no more can be said -- that's the best I can get
If I sound confused at time, I will still believe in You Though doubters somehow refuse to see
There is still a Trinity
