You're the proud crowd waiting for
The guinea pigs to die somewhere tonight
You can't find the time to celebrate
And you have no goodbyes to give away
You are always telling lies
You never show me what you feel inside
You're boring, you're a waste of time
Please leave me and I'll leave you all behind

We decide whats wrong and right
We'd rather lose than fight
We're going down
And down
Without us you cannot exist
Without us you don't get no kicks
And we
Are going down...
