Hello where are you
hello what are you
I'll be seeing you one day in flames far away
I wish you'd listen to my words you'll have to learn the ticket's only one way Hello where are you
hello who are you
will we meet in joy
wish we'd meet in Glory
who will point the finger at judgment
will you curse my name
will it seem the same
all souls are yes they are eternal
as is pain
goodbye where are you
goodbye what are we
you loved to hate
hate was bait
my words I fear
came to late
I'll cry over your tomb stone
