Breathe in the water
Drown in the sky
High, high above her
While I'm flowing through your eyes

Hold me in motion
Still in your sun
Under this ocean
There's a world melt into one

And I'm hanging on to everything I hold dear
And I'm letting go of fear
I'm hanging on to every single one of you

See all the darkness
Blind in the light
Deep in this forest
Tell me leave this in this night

And I'm hanging on,

To everything I hold dear
And I'm letting go of all this fear
I'm hanging on to every single one of you

Go somewhere better
Go to the sea
Walk through the desert
Till your love grows over me

And I'm hanging on
To everything I hold dear
And I'm letting go of all my fear
I'm hanging on to every single one of you
To every single one of you
To every single one of you
Every single one of you
