The clouds are rollin' in
We'll watch them
The waves are strong
The boat is gone
I hope they're swimming

Little boy lost in woods
Where's the clearing?
The town is out
They're calling loud
But he's not hearing

It seems to me I'm always miles away
Looking for my old face

Save me from myself
I can't relate
We're mouth to mouth
And still I suffocate
There's nothing left
Inside for me to break
Save me from myself

The bullet in the yard
Slowly rusting
The bottles crack
The kids come back
And I'm just looking

The wine is on the floor
The candles flicker
Your eyes fall
And I'm apalled
It's all just cinder

That seems to me we're always miles apart

Trying to find another place to start

Save me from myself
I can't relate
We're mouth to mouth

And still I suffocate
Inside for me to break
Save me from myself

The sailors never left
They knew the weather
When they were found
They were having drinks together

They found a little boy in the grocery
Happy ending's all around
And still they haunt me

Save me from myself
I can't relate
We're mouth to mouth
Inside of me to break
Save me from myself

Save me from myself
