

Veruca Salt

"Life's An Ocean"

Visit "Life's An Ocean" on MotoLyrics.com

Life's An Ocean
Too much commotion, too much emotion
Dragging me down
Living for today, don't have time to pray
Ready for the game
Take a line of fickle flame

Imagine the future
Wke up with a scream
I was buying some feelings
From a vending machine
Say that I will see
Something more than I have
There's something inside of me
Crying out for something else
And if someone hears my scream
Put it in a letter to me
Slippery slidey road down

Life's an ocean too much commotion

Not enough emotion to satisfy me
Slippery slidey road down
It's slippery slidey road down

Hold my hand and we'll walk down
Dry those eyes and we'll walk down

Slippery slidey road down
Life's an ocean, life's an ocean
Too much commotion, too much emotion

Visit Veruca Salt page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.