When you come
I feel that I
I've never been
Here before
I don't even
Know the score
And you
Tell me the truth
I called once
From everywhere
And faces
That will
Have me there
The higher I go
The more
I seem to grow
The further I see
The more
You write to me

When you go
I feel that I
I've never been
Here before
I don't even
Know the score
And you tell me
The truth
I called once
From everywhere
And faces
That will
Have me there
The higher I go
The more
I seem to grow
The further I see
The more
You write to me
