How could you know that behind my eyes a sad girl cried

And how could you know that I hurt so much inside

How could you know that I'm not the average girl I'm caring in the weight of the world yeah so can you take me out of here

Take me away jump in the car drive till the gas runs out we went so far cause I can't see this place anymore Take a little ride give it a rest so I can forget about this mess If I lighten up a little bit then I will be

If I lighten up a little bit then I will be

Over it

Over it

I am over it

I am over it
