Written by Desmond Pringle

If it's worth having then it's worth working for

Free lunch is over nothing comes easy anymore

Good things will come to those who wait

But while you're waiting you've gotta' do what it takes

'Cause nothing from nothing will leave you with nothing more

If you'll ever have anything you've got to do something because

Nothing beats failure but a try

If the bird never flapped its wings

He'd never know he could fly

So before you give up or give in

Be sure you try

Nothing comes to sleepers but a dream

Once you get started it ain't as hard as it seems

If at first you don't succeed just try again

'Cause being persistent is gonna pay off my friend

If you can make one step you can make two

You would surprise yourself at just what you can do

Now life isn't fair and most of the winners didn't play by the rules

But you shouldn't let that scare you from doing

What you need to do
