I know there's somethin'
That you wanna say
Baby, baby you know
It just wont work out that way
You got stop pretending
That everything's just fine
Oh baby love
It's closing time
I heard you cryin'
Again late last night
Baby baby I'd like to say
That everything's all right
But I know we both know better
That your living a lie
Oh baby love
It's closing time
We turn the light of love down low
And lock the doors of devotion
Pull the shades of happiness
And darken our emotion
We wipe the tables clean and clear
Of all the love that we had here
Oh baby love
I guess we've had enough
I gotta tell you
Cause I don't think you know
Baby, baby how I hate to see you go
But I just don't see the reason
For spending any more time
Cause after all baby
It's closing time
Cause after all baby
It's closing time
It's closing time
