I wish that I could give breath to the women I've created
In paragraphs and paragraphs I've written to this date and
Set them all upon my desk, choose one to ignore
And just to even the score

All the biggest plays I missed
'Cause I was sitting over on the sidelines
All the precious faces that
Refused to date someone outside the guidelines

Well, high school begins with worship for the leisure class, oh
You swear, you'll overcome it but your envy doesn't seem to plan
How similar the shopping but at different stores
We've got to even the score

All the biggest plays I missed
'Cause I was sitting over on the sidelines
All the precious faces that
Refused to date someone outside the guidelines

I wish that I could [Inaudible]

All the biggest plays I missed
'Cause I was sitting over on the sidelines
All the precious faces that
Refused to date someone outside the guidelines
Outside the guidelines, outside the guidelines
