"Today was a great day", I said but I meant
Today was the worst day I've ever spent
I'm trying to be what you want me to be
So you'll settle down, stop driving me into the ground

Well, it might be how you fight me till I'm shattered
I would leave you but to leave you wouldn't matter
So beneath you, underneath you, I am right here
Miles away, miles away

Today was a strange day, I meant what I said
Today was the first day that I looked ahead
And if I could be what you want me to be Would you let me down? Stop driving me into the ground

Well, it might be how you fight me till I'm shattered
I would leave you but to leave you wouldn't matter
So beneath you, underneath you, I am right here
Miles away

Can I have your attention, have your respect?
We all need redemption, some more or less
Miles away

Now you fight me, satellite me till I'm shattered
I would leave you but to leave you wouldn't matter
So beneath you, underneath you, I am right here
Miles away

Or it may be how you play me till I'm shattered
I defend it and pretend it doesn't matter
If you need me then believe me I'll be right here
Miles away, miles away, miles away, miles away
