I should be half a mile from here

Now I will go anywhere she goes
Shoulder the bags of a previous lover

I will go anywhere she goes
Sleep on the pillow that reeks of another

A will of mine to be impressive
I'm an amorous man

Now I will go anywhere she goes
Travel whenever, whatever the distance

You deemed me to be offensive
I'm, I'm an ominous man

Once love is unanimous
No order demands

I should be half a mile from here

You deemed me to be obsessive
I'm, I'm an ominous man

Jury reject the alibi's seemingly water-tight
For the ominous man

I am the ominous man
(I am the ominous man)
I am the ominous man
(I am the ominous man)
I am the ominous man
(I am the ominous man)

I am the ominous man
I am the ominous man
I am the ominous man
