Feels like heaven skies are smiling now
And the melody's playing for two
Oh how this year had favor on me
But I never saw it coming
My beautiful, beautiful surprise

Now I hear You Love
I hear You loud and clear
Now I see You Love
Much better in this light of truth
What a perfect Love
More than I could ever try to find for me
Oh, You've found me Love
So thank You, thank You, thank You Love

This solo journey's been quite a ride
Leaving a trail of bittersweet memories behind
But someone always had me in mind
To wait in content for
My beautiful, beautiful surprise
