Iâm coming Lord to take my heart in Learning how to be Your child to Rest inside my Fatherâs perfect love
This heart it longs for more of You
Come dig this well deeper Lord
Deeper than I have ever known

I need to go further into You
To the innermost depths of You
The more I see You Lord, the more I find myself
Belonging to You

I canât help but yield to You
I surrender all to You Take me deeper into You âCause all I want is more of You âCause my heart is held captive, by Your love

Each day, each day, each day with Your love (2x)
