"Possibilities"

Standing barefoot with the cool grass between my toes
I close my eyes to the limits of this world Don't wanna just look at what's in front of my nose
I wanna reach past these skies for something more

Cause there is fire in my heart and wings on feet
With so many hopes, so many dreams
Cause there is fire in my heart and wings on feet
Never doubt the possibilities

Reaching out my arms to touch the ends of the earth Knowing my Maker I knew there had to be a greater reason for my birth
It ain't money, ain't power, ain't fame,
From Your heart You must defend Too much to see, too much to do
Don't wanna turn the kaleidoscope of life again
