This is my story, this is my song
About a past that was all wrong
Looking for love that wouldn't fail me
But always somehow disappointed
Can't expect others to keep a promise
That even I can't keep
We're all the same, no one deserving
But all the same we need this hope

But this hope I found
Was one that had found me first
A blameless one
Would die in the place of me
This great act of love
Now always brings my soul
To sing!

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
Amazing love, lift me up from the ground
Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
Amazing love, life me up from the ground
