"Walk On Water"

I drifted out into life's seas of ups and downs
Took places near and far, been all around
Took me high, then strung me up to dry
How dry now is this weary soul of mine
This soul of mine, this soul of mine

I've gotten used to the rhythm of my pace
Just going with the flow of my little world, my space
But there's so much more beyond what I can see
And now a stirring in my heart moves me
It moves me, It moves me

Don't want to just paddle my way along
I'm longing to take a dive into You

I want to step out of this boat
Help me to walk on these waters to You Don't want to be afraid to let go
Of the things that I hold onto and the things that I know

Come move me, Come move me

Don't want to just paddle my way along
I'm longing to take a dive into you (2X)

I keep waiting for these winds to die down
But it's time to step out now, it's time to step out now
Though these waves rise around me, help me to keep my Eyes on You, and keep trusting You

You move me, You move me
