Mary you're a lady,
A jewel of royalty
I see stars all about you
Drawn to your beautiful,
Like Saturn's Shepard moons
I fall all about you

And maybe you could be mine
And make love out of time
Where no one minds

Your hair flows like rainbows
Across the milky sky
I see diamonds all about you
Your eyes flash like lighting
Dispelling dreary dreams
That only bringing sadness

Mary,
Ooo yeah, oooo yeah, you will be mine x2

You lie down on pillows
I look into your eyes
The moon shines within you
Waves of colors in your hair
The rings of Saturn everywhere
They fall all about you

Mary
