[Intro/Chorus: Thea Van Seijen] Bloody days, bloody nights I will never give up on the fight Is my soul, up for this right? Is my heart, struck for this plight? Many days, many nights Never felt this strong in my life Youthful heart, belongs to my knight Is my soul, up for this plight? [Prodigal Sunn] Kill 'em... kill 'em... uh-huh, kill 'em... Yeah - pages in my heart, you ripped the family apart Insanity sparked, my soul fill in purple dark It's murder from the start, survivin like Noah's Ark I'm Alpha Afro, hit 'em with a thousand darts You left us for dead, my blade sharp drippin red It's barefaced cool and no doubt I'm here to take your head I'm at the pearly gates, my mission to terminate A guilty conscience only leads to your bloody fate [Chorus] [Outro: Thea Van Seijen] Youthful heart, belongs to my knight Is my soul, up for this plight? Bloody days, bloody nights I will never give up on the fight Is my soul, up for this right? Is my heart, struck for this plight? "The headband shall be, ours!"
