It's getting harder to decide on which way I should go Should I let myself down fast?
I don't think I wanna know

It's over-said but understated just how hard it can be Hey I think I've seen this road before and it's so hard to believe I'd be back this way again after I told myself to leave

You never said that it was gonna be easy But I didn't know just how hard it would be

I go 'round and 'round
I'm lost and found
I'm never happy in the middle I've gotta be up or down Just when I think that I've found level ground
I turn around and destroy all of the life I've found

Well self-destruction's kinda dumb but if you do it well
You can find heaven if you can handle hell It's all part of understanding just how strange life can be Living a lie becomes so easy but now
I just want to be free

I feel inside out never thought I'd doubt my ability to work it all out Going forward to fall back working hard to relax
I never thought that I would be following my own tracks
It's going 'round
It's going 'round
It's going 'round
