

The Whitlams

"Where is She"

Visit "Where is She" on MotoLyrics.com

Where is she? I've been driving 'round this town Poking my head in the corners we used to sit
Stop for a bottle, there'll be trouble wherever I go
Some neat and sensible girl screaming for order

Who would've known I'd be lonely
Here on my own she's so lovely
Lovely, lovely

Loved her room, sleep all day with no doorknocks for me
Let the phone ring and suburbs away my one ringing along with it
Stop for a bottle, there'll be trouble wherever I go
Some neat and sensible girl screaming for order

Who would've known I'd be lonely
Here on my own she's so lovely
Lovely, lovely

Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind
Not together or 'sleep by her side
Get me someone to get her out of my mind
Words & Music: Tim Freedman
Tim Freedman: vocals, piano
Stevie Plunder: guitar, vocals
Andy Lewis: bass, backing vocals
Louis Burdett: brushes Nick Cecire: Cymbals Recorded
January, March 1993 at Skyhigh

Visit The Whitlams page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.