

Vetiver "Through The Front Door"

Won't be back again
I know
I feel this sad truth all through me
These rules
These halls got a lot around memory

And the way I see things
Don't do a damn for me
Through the front door
I see the light of our room
I've been wrong before
But I've been right you know too
Still I won't be back no more
I'm going to try and undo these thoughts
Of freedom
I need to be free

Won't be back again
I know
Won't be back again
I do
I know
