Come now servants, follow me
Orphans of death, murderous destiny

We're your masters, worship eternally

No light! No love! Kill!

Now the demons, control you
Darkened insight, violent pursuits

Unimaginable evil, now becomes truth

No warmth! No Christ! Kill!

Server of the Damned
Server of the Damned
Server of the Damned
Server of the Damned

Kill!

Time to choose your fucking side
Allegiance is now sanctified
Victory comes to those who denied
To be judged under God's eyes!

Kill!
