"Tired"

It's the promise, let me down
Had too much spinning round
Hide my feelings in a box
Close the lid, shut the locks
Tell me something, tell a lie
Put the needle in my eye
Set in stone, you and me
Set in stone, to be
I'm so tired, I'm tired of this
And you keep it all yourself
Leave me thinking, leave me here
Same as always, not too near
Don't involve me when you fall
I just want to hide
Tell me something, tell a lie
Put the needle in my eye
You and me, fall apart
Again
I'm so tired, I'm tired of this
And you keep it all yourself
Same as always
