I met her in the street and she said you're looking kind of weak and I said I don't care what you think about me I'm my own king I'm living without you but she would not listen to me she just kept on asking what if you could have me now do you still want me now

I can't believe you
I can't believe you
what have you done you selfish little cunt you she took me by the hand and I was too weak to say no though I said this is way too easy for you you can easily leave me can't you

she just wanted to dance before me she just wanted to win me over I should have walked home to you

I can't believe you
I can't believe you
x2

to this day
to this day I still want you to this day I still need you if you just had been dead

this would all go away
this would all be ok

I can't believe you
